

Open water diver

The first level of diving certification - your ticket to exciting adventures in the underwater world. The PADI Open Water Diver course is the world's most popular scuba course, and has introduced millions of people to the adventurous diving lifestyle. The first time you breath underwater is something you'll never forget. If you've always wanted to learn how to scuba dive, discover new adventures or simply see the wondrous world beneath the waves, this is where it starts.

What's involved?

The PADI Open Water course is divided into modules and consist of five academic sessions - video and lecture, shallow water sessions in our training pool, and four open water dives in the ocean. Once completed you will be certified to dive to a depth of 18 meters. This is an internationally recognized credential and is your ticket to the diving world. Junior Open Water Divers 10-15 years, if you are between 10-12 years old You will be certified to dive to a depth of 12 m.

How long will it take?

Between three and four days. Because the course is performance based, you will have plenty of time to practice in the pool and in the open water prior to certification.

Day 1 : 15:00-17:00

Registration and Video Day 2 : 09:00-17:00

Classroom & Academics (there will be a lunch break)

Day 3 : 08:00-11:30

Swimming Pool & skills training

13:10-17:30

Ocean Dive 1 and 2 max 12 meters Day 4 : 07:40-12:30

Ocean Dive 3 and 4 max 18 meters

Certification and log book back at dive shop

Requirements?

Be at least 10 years old and be able to swim.

What next?

After completing the OWD, you may also want to continue your dive education with an Advanced Open Water Diver or Specialty Diver course to allow you to explore more dive opportunities.

How Much?

Only 9,800 THB